

DRAGON DE QUINTUS

SAINT-EMILION 2016

This is the second wine of Chateau Quintus, the Clarence Dillon (Haut-Brion and La Mission Haut-Brion) project in Saint-Emilion. Chateau Tertre Daugay was purchased in 2011 and renamed Quintus, latin for the number 5, being the 5th great red wine of the Clarence Dillon stable. The neighboring property of Chateau L'Arrosee was purchased in 2013 doubling the size of the estate. The Haut-Brion team oversee production with a crew on site dedicated to the day-to-day work. The results have been impressive.

The Merlot and Cabernet Franc grape varieties were harvested in the area of Saint-Emilion from October 3rd-October 20th, under excellent weather conditions. 2016 Dragon de Quintus 2016 is a blend of 90% Merlot and 10% Cabernet Franc.

Dragon de Quintus 2016 from Chateau Quintus has a beautiful red colour and purple legs. The nose is powerful and intense with notes of red fruits (cherries). The mouth is supple and also very fruity. The tannic structure is present, but not overbearing. Dragon de Quintus 2016 is the most complete wine produced since 2011.
